Escape to McAllen

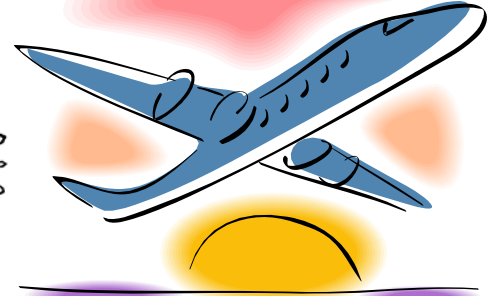

Leave winter behind!

February 26 - March 5, 2010

only $1,098 per Person

McAllen, Texas is located in the Rio Grande Valley of South Texas and provides a pleasant sub-tropical atmosphere and a variety of attractions. Nicknamed the “City of Palms” for the 40 varieties of trees that line the streets - McAllen is the perfect Winter Get-A-Way for you. While in McAllen you may want to visit many of your snowbird friends and relatives who live in the area during the winter months. You can choose between having your own rent-a-car or a chauffeured van to the area attractions. Mini-vans will be available for groups of four. A $35 discount per person will be given for the mini-van. If you rent a vehicle you are responsible for the fuel and can either use your existing automotive insurance or purchase additional. Some of the attractions that might peak your interest are:

Touring South Padre Island - located on the tropical tip of Texas, South Padre Island is bordered by the Gulf of Mexico and the Laguna Madre Bay. Beautiful beaches, warm Gulf waters, fishing, boating, bird watching, shopping, and a diversity of year-round activities await you. As the days wind down with breathtaking sunsets over the bay, night clubs and restaurants come alive with conversation, dining, music and dancing. Many restaurants will even cook your catch of the day; Harlingen Heritage Tour - enjoy a fun trolley tour and learn about the founder of Harlingen and how his dream became a reality. Allow ample time to enjoy the enticement of Mexico - bustling Reynosa or a laid back Nuevo Progreso, both just minutes away. Explore the shops and markets for their endless possibilities . . .

jewelry, ceramics, hand woven fabrics and hand-blown glass, the unique creations of skilled Mexican craftsmen. Toast the day’s discoveries with a frosty margarita at a fine Reynosa restaurant. Passports are required to enter Mexico. When it comes right down to it, many people who visit McAllen spend most of their leisure time shopping. McAllen’s wealth of shopping is here for you to discover. Visiting the hotel’s brochure rack will supply you with plenty of activities to fulfill your days; or simply leave winter behind and relax at the La Copa Hotel.
